

About Us

Founded in 2004, Williams Family Law, P.C., is a premier family law firm located in Bucks County, Pennsylvania. Our matrimonial law firm focuses on representing clients in all aspects of family law matters.

Williams Family Law's family law attorneys provide representation to individuals in Bucks County and Montgomery County and are recognized for our reputation as leaders in the legal profession. With extensive litigation experience and success, our firm is well-known both locally and throughout Pennsylvania for our work in family law.

Built around four core principles: experienced guidance, compassionate advice, powerful advocacy and local knowledge, our family law attorneys understand the sensitive nature of life-changing circumstances that arise when individuals are faced with divorce, support, custody and related matters.

Founding partner, Jeffrey M. Williams, and firm attorneys have decades of experience working in Bucks County. Over the years, they have had the opportunity to practice law with many of the best attorneys in the area including two former partners who have become Bucks County Court of Common Pleas judges.

While the Williams Family Law Bucks County family law firm is best known for its litigation experience, our attorneys have also received specialized training in areas such as mediation and collaborative law, and advanced matrimonial taxation. Several of our lawyers are also well-versed in criminal law and are able to assist our clients when necessary.
