Bob Salzer Participates in Newport Academy Workshop on Children's Issues

Doylestown, PA – Partner Robert J. Salzer of Williams Family Law, P.C. participated in a panel discussion exploring the emotional, physical, legal and mental issues children are facing, and how to raise them to be resilient adults. “The Lost Children” was hosted by Newport Academy and took place May 15, 2019 at the Newtown Athletic Club. Salzer was joined on the panel by Chad Coren, Psy.D, Med, MA, CAADC; Rachel Millner, Psy.D., CEDS; Eric Weinstein, Psy.D.; Chris Craig, MA/MS, LAC; and Joan Kings, CRNP. (Photo: Bob Salzer, right, stands with fellow panelist Dr. Chad Coren, a drug addiction counselor who practices in Doylestown.)

Salzer focuses his practice on financially complex, high net worth family law matters including alimony/spousal support, divorce, equitable distribution, marital agreements, child support, child custody and prenuptial and postnuptial agreements. He is a co-author of “Stress-Free Divorce,” a book designed to help anyone considering or in the midst of a divorce identify and overcome common obstacles to as smooth a resolution as possible.

Williams Family Law is a premier family law firm that provides individuals with matrimonial and family law legal counsel and representation in alimony, child support, child custody, divorce, cohabitation, grandparents' custody rights, equitable distribution, marital settlement agreements, prenuptial and postnuptial agreements, separation agreements, spousal support, matrimonial taxation issues and related legal matters. The family law attorneys also provide guidance and representation in alternative dispute resolution forums, handling mediation, arbitration and custody dispute resolution. The practice at Williams Family Law centers on four core principles: experienced guidance, compassionate advice, powerful advocacy and knowledge of the local courts and counsel.
