Jeff Williams to Participate in CLE on Drug and Alcohol Issues in Civil Litigation

Philadelphia - Williams Family Law founder and managing partner Jeffrey M. Williams is a scheduled speaker for a seminar entitled "Drug and Alcohol Issues in Civil Litigation," to be hosted by the Pennsylvania Bar Institute, the educational arm of the Pennsylvania Bar Association. The program will be presented live on Friday, May 18, 2018, from 8:30 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. at the CLE Conference Center in the Wanamaker Building in Philadelphia. Additionally, there are 26 simulcast locations throughout the state where participants can gather to view the program, and it will also be offered as an on-demand webcast. Attendees will receive a total of four continuing legal education credits: 3 substantive and 1 ethics.

With so many media stories these days focusing on the nation's opioid epidemic, this program takes a deeper look at the ever-expanding list of costs that affect public health, law enforcement, public employment, and local government budgets as a result. Williams' portion of the presentation will focus on the impact of drugs and alcohol in family court.

Williams, who is currently president of the American Association of Matrimonial Lawyers' Pennsylvania Chapter, is a leading family and divorce law attorney in Pennsylvania. He has been named to 'Best Lawyers in America' for eleven straight years, he is a diplomate of the American College of Family Trial Lawyers (whose membership is limited to 100 attorneys nationwide) and has been selected as one of the "Ten Leaders of Greater Philadelphia for Matrimonial & Divorce Law" since 2004.
