Ronald J. Ventola II Counsel

Philadelphia: 215.965.1390 F: 215.965.1331 E: rventola@panitchlaw.com Ronald J. Ventola II is an intellectual property attorney licensed in Pennsylvania and registered to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. He has a broad range of experience including counseling clients, obtaining protection, and litigating disputes under the laws governing patents, trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets.

Ronald is well versed in a variety of technologies, having prosecuted patents for mail processing equipment, wetlands restoration equipment, manufacturing methods, computer software, furniture, aids for surgical training, devices and compounds for automobile repair and maintenance, and mechanical devices including fasteners, support structures for tools, exercise equipment, sports equipment and pet aids. He also has counseled on trademark clearance and licensing, prepared agreements for both outbound and inbound licensing of patents and know-how and has performed IP due diligence and drafting in acquisitions.

Ronald has successfully represented clients in litigation matters, and he has evaluated and settled claims for patent infringement. He also has defended manufacturers and retailers of sporting good, sunglasses, clothing, furniture and computer software against claims of patent infringement, trademark infringement, copyright infringement, and misappropriation of trade secrets. He also has prepared cease-and-desist correspondence asserting infringement of trademarks and copyrights, and he has represented owners of trademarks in disputes over others' use or registration of domain names, including contested proceedings under the Uniform Domain-Name Dispute Resolution Policy.
