Copyrights

Copyrights apply to a broad range of creative or intellectual works, including books, software, e-commerce, music, art work and product catalogs. Developing a comprehensive strategy on a timely basis is key.

Our attorneys are adept at counseling clients on the registration, licensing, policing, and enforcement of copyrights. Regionally and nationally, clients rely on the legal expertise of our attorneys to ensure that their creative and intellectual works are properly protected.

We understand how copyright protection frequently overlaps other forms of intellectual property protection, such as design patents, trademarks, and industrial designs. Our attorneys possess the knowledge and skills required to address these issues. The well-rounded expertise of our attorneys allows our firm to counsel our clients across multiple intellectual property areas to develop the best possible legal solutions.
