PHILADELPHIA (March 20, 2012) – Dr. Weihong Hsing, Attorney at Panitch Schwarze Belisario and Nadel LLP, was a speaker at 21st Annual Partnerships in Clinical Trials on March 5 at the Orlando World Center in Orlando, Florida. Dr Hsing's presentation, "Protect Your Intellectual Property: Tools for Patent Protection When Conducting Trials in China," covered topics on the shifting trend in China from a country which primarily copied other people's products to one which plays an active role in creating new products. She also talked on the differing characteristics of this burgeoning IP nation from the U.S., and how foreign companies can protect their Intellectual Property rights and avoid infringement lawsuits when conducting clinical trials in China.

The Annual Partnerships in Clinical Trials is known as the premiere clinical trials meeting in the world drawing the attendance of nearly 2,000 participants from over 50 countries involved in the strategic decisions and operations of conducting global clinical trials.
