Details: Intellectual property law firm Panitch Schwarze Belisario & Nadel will host an International Trademark Association roundtable focusing on tips for managing trademark projects. Coordinated by Panitch Schwarze IP attorney Bridget H. Labutta, the discussion will focus on large-scale trademark projects, including assignment searches, global filing requirements, portfolio acquisitions, and due diligence.

The roundtable is an opportunity to network with other IP professionals, stay current on industry trends, and share ideas about intellectual property issues.

Labutta focuses her practice in the area of intellectual property, including counseling emerging and established companies regarding trademark, copyright and domain name matters, negotiating and drafting licenses, and representing clients in federal court litigation and administrative proceedings. She recently was named a Pennsylvania “Rising Star” by the Super Lawyers rating program.
