

Intellectual Property Associate (Biological Science)

Position: Intellectual Property Associate (Biological Science)

Location: Philadelphia, PA 19103 or Wilmington, DE 19803

GENERAL SUMMARY

The ideal candidate will have at 5+ years of patent prosecution experience, including but not limited to the preparation and prosecution of patent applications, client counseling, opinion development and due diligence activities. Practical experience and an in-depth knowledge of a Biological Science is required.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Ph.D. in Biological Sciences, Molecular Biology, Genetics or Microbiology
- 4 years of research experience in one or more of molecular biology, genetics, cell biology and microbiology
- 5+ years previous IP law experience
- Superior academic record, excellent written and communication skills, strong attention to detail and strong analytical abilities
- Highly motivated and results-oriented
- Active USPTO Registration
- Good standing in the bar(s) where licensed to practice law, and willing to sit for the Pennsylvania or Delaware bar if not already licensed in one of those states
- Superior technical, verbal and written communication skills
- Strong analytical and problem solving abilities
- Ability to work effectively in a fast-paced environment, prioritize and resolve conflicting workload assignments, and adapt to changing conditions