

Trademarks

Establishing and protecting trademark rights is a key component of our intellectual property practice. Our attorneys obtain a comprehensive understanding of the clients' business and marketing strategies to ensure that trademarks are both protected against unauthorized use and exploited in a manner that gives our clients assurance that no rights are being violated.

We provide U.S. and global strategies for trademark protection. Whether counseling small or large businesses, our attorneys have the depth of experience and expertise required to address issues in a wide array of industries.

Our attorneys handle all types of trademark disputes, including domain name issues, our attorneys are well-equipped to fortify our clients' current trademark portfolios and guide the selection and protection of new marks for products and services. Whether conducting U.S. or international trademark searches or prosecuting a trademark application, our attorneys make sure that our clients receive proper trademark protection. We have substantial experience in licensing and related transactional practice areas to enable our clients to maximize business opportunities.

Why Enroll Your Trademark in the Amazon Brand Registry?

Selling on Amazon is nearly ubiquitous, so it's imperative to protect your brand – your trademark – across the platform. Amazon has made it easier to do so by overhauling its Brand Registry last year and creating, in their own words, "an accurate and trusted experience for customers." As a brand owner, you must have a dual focus on strengthening and protecting your brand while also engaging and serving your customers. The Amazon Brand Registry supports this dual focus. Here Comes the Rush to Trademark 'Philly Special'

One of the Philadelphia Eagles Super Bowl victory's most memorable moments witnessed was a gutsy play that the team called the "Philly Special." It was one of the boldest calls in Super Bowl history, and it has inspired some bold moves at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (“USPTO”), as well. As the term “Philly Special” has spread like wildfire through Eagles’ fandom, quick-thinking entrepreneurs have raced to capitalize on it, filing trademark applications to secure the rights to those golden words.
