PHILADELPHIA (May 2018) – Intellectual property law firm Panitch Schwarze Belisario & Nadel LLP is pleased to announce that Elizabeth Ann “Betty” Morgan was a presenter at the American Intellectual Property Association’s spring meeting in Seattle, Washington.

During her presentation, Morgan discussed successful strategies for arbitration in intellectual property law. She outlined the Federal Arbitration Act and discussed the advantages and disadvantages of arbitration as it relates to IP law. The presentation also covered procedural issues, including determining arbitrability, evidence, disclosures, appeals, and more.

Morgan has experience with franchise disputes, contract disputes, banking disputes, construction litigation, employment and wage and hour litigation as well as securities industry practices. She has been a party representative, mediator or arbitrator in more than 100 matters.

Morgan serves as a panelist for the American Arbitration Association (AAA) and National Arbitration and Mediation (NAM). She was invited to join the peer-reviewed International Institute for Conflict Prevention and Resolution (CPR) as a mediator where she is a member of the Trademark Panel, Entertainment Panel, Employment Panel and Philadelphia ADR Panel. She is on INTA’s Panel of Mediators and is a neutral with the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO). As a FINRA public arbitrator, Morgan is injunction-qualified and has served as a panel chair.
