PHILADELPHIA (April 2017) - Panitch Schwarze partner Alan S. Nadel presented at the 33rd Annual Joint Patent Practice Seminar. The JPPCLE is an annual one day seminar that features knowledgeable speakers such as judges, government officials, and attorneys discussing the latest trends and important topics in intellectual property law. The seminar took place April 27 at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in New York City.

Nadel's program, "Strategies for International Patent Applications Filing" was included in the Supreme Court/Licensing/Foreign Practice portion of the day's programming. CLE credits for Connecticut, Delaware, New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania were available to attendants.

The featured speakers at the JPPCLE included Hon. Richard Linn, a senior circuit judge for the United States Court of Appeals; Andrew Hirshfield, Commissioner for Patents for the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office; Markus Meier, Assistant Director of the Federal Trade Commission's Health Care Division; and Nathan Kelley, Deputy General Counsel for Intellectual Property Law and Solicitor.

A patent attorney, Nadel has been registered to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office for more than 30 years. His practice includes negotiating, advising with respect to and preparing licenses and technology transfer agreements and other agreements associated with technology practice, such as trade secret and consulting agreements. He has negotiated and prepared licenses involving pharmaceuticals, diagnostic products, veterinary products, nutritional supplements and various other technologies.
