PHILADELPHIA (March 2021) – The intellectual property law firm Panitch Schwarze Belisario & Nadel LLP is proud to announce that partner Jeffrey W. Gluck, Ph.D. has been reappointed as member of the AIPPI standing committee on standards and patents.

The AIPPI Standards and Patents committee's work focuses on supervising, commenting, and advising AIPPI on policy, regulatory and legal frameworks regarding standards and patents.

An experienced IP attorney, Gluck focuses his practice on advanced electrical and computer-related technologies. He represents clients in a wide array of areas including patent counseling and opinions, licensing and transactions, interferences, patent prosecution and reissue, and reexaminations. He also helps with trial litigation and has served as lead attorney in appellate litigation.

Gluck has extensive experience, having worked as an engineer and researcher (including management), as a university professor and as a patent examiner, in addition to his experience as a patent agent and patent attorney. While focusing mainly on multi-user, digital, wireless and satellite communications, he also has worked in the areas of signal processing and control systems. A large part of his research centered on spread-spectrum/CDMA systems, including applications to cellular systems.

After earning a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering and computer science from Princeton, Gluck went on to receive a master's degree from University of Massachusetts and a doctorate from the University of Maryland. He holds a law degree from the Georgetown University Law Center.
